- 2. Ensures legal compliance with federal, state, and local regulations?
- 3. Monitors financial performance and projections on a regular basis?
- 4. Has a strategic vision for the organization?
- 5. Has adopted a conflict of interest policy that is discussed regularly?
- 6. Currently contains an appropriate range of expertise and diversity to make it an effective governing body?
- 7. Regularly assesses its own work?

How confident are you that most or all board members:

- 8. Understand the mission and purpose of the organization?
- 9. Are adequately knowledgeable about the organization's programs?
- 10. Act as ambassadors to the community on behalf of the organization and its constituencies?
- 11. Understand the respective roles of the board and staff?
- 12. Are appropriately involved in board activities?

Please comment:

13. What information-whether about the organization, the program areas, nonprofit management or nonprofit boards-would you like to get to help you be a better board member?

14. When you joined the board, did you have ideas on how you would help the organization that haven't happened? If so, what ideas?

15. What suggestions/questions do you have for the board chair or the executive director about the board, your own role, or any other aspect of the organization?
